CARDS TUMBLER BY ARMY, 19-12

By ORVILLE GANTON

Capt. "Bing" Caswell marched his baseball corps on the Cardinals' parade ground and batted the birds off their lofty perch. Displaying some real batting power, the army girls gave Schroder four runs to work on in the first inning and then went on to hand the Cards their first defeat. Two new players, who came in on a draft from London, gave the corps some extraumph. Keough, who lined up with Albert's intermediate champions before enlisting, showed good batting form and plenty of poise in centre field. Schroder seemed to have more control than usual; if her mates keep hitting she might be tough from here in.

Cardinals were without their fire-brand catcher, Dean. McGrath put on the mask and caught a good game, but Cardinals missed Dean's slugging and general hustle.

300 Million Dollar Fund Will Assist In Job Conversion

The fund built up through the Unemployment Insurance Act has now reached "eight of the $300,000,000 mark," says a statement issued through P. J. Tod, Selective Service officer in Newmarket. Benefit payments from this fund will become available to Canadian workers when their employment in war industry ceases and they await re-employment in civilian industry, the statement continues.

Full text of the statement follows:

"Immediately following the declaration of war, the government set two measures in motion which were to have the most profound effect upon the Canadian economy, upon the Canadian war effort and upon the shape of postwar Canada. One was the excess profits tax. The other was unemployment insurance. Much of the industrial strife in the last war, which distorted Canadian labor relations in the inter-war years, arose directly from the profiteering in the last war. Much of the suffering of the depression might have been prevented by national unemployment insurance.

"The prompt enactment of our Unemployment Insurance Act, immediately after the consent of the provinces was obtained, is easily one of the most important steps forward taken during the war. The measure, incidentally, was one of the important recommendations in the report of the Royal Commission on Industrial Unrest which was established after the disastrous series of strikes in 1919. The working people of Canada, in the war

Camp Softballers Win 3-2 On McComb's Home Run

By BERNIE GANTNER

Playing in ideal football weather, the No. 23 softballers climbed to the top rung of the Toronto Garrison service loop, squeezing out a 3-2 decision over Clare Exelby's queen city Army Drivers by virtue of Joint McComb's two-run homer with one away in the last of the ninth. Hard-rock McComb was the hero of the piece as he pitched and batted his way to a well-earned triumph over a star-packed Driver nine before an audience of over 350 Tuesday night.

In subduing the service corps outfit, McComb gained an immeasurable amount of satisfaction, allowing only five hits to the strongest line-up of sluggers this season. Exelby, former camp stalwart, had several Beaches league fastballers on

JUVENILES DEFEAT STOUFFVILLE, 6-5

Newmarket juvenile hardball club kept their winning streak intact at Stuart Scott school grounds on Monday night, making it four straight by taking the visiting Stouffville nine into camp with a 6-5 count.

The visitors grabbed an early lead to hold a 5-1 margin going into the last of the sixth. Coming up with a five-run spurge in their half of the sixth, the local kids pushed over five runs to grab the lead and game. Consecutive hits by Rutledge, Thoms, Winger, Monkman and Broughton paved the way for the victory.

Kenny Broughton on the hill-top for the Redmen set the visitors down in order in the first of the seventh as the homesters held onto their narrow one-run margin.

Friday night the locals will Aurora club and on Monday night to the league-leading Milliken club.

OTTAWA STAYS OVERSEAS TRIP OF EDUCATORS

Headmaster Joseph McCulley of Pickering College returned to Newmarket last Thursday from Halifax where he had expected to embark for England with five other educators. On arrival at Halifax, Mr. McCulley and other members of the mission had been told that their project had been suspended.

The purpose of the group was to tour Canadian stations overseas as part of a rehabilitation and reorientation program. It was expected that the educators would be able to bring Canadians overseas up to date on what had happened in their country while they had been away and what to expect on their return. The project had been sponsored by the Wartime Information Board and Mr. McCulley had planned to be absent for at least two months.

On his return to Newmarket, Mr. McCulley issued the following statement:

"Two weeks ago I announced that I expected to leave Canada shortly to participate in a rehabilitation and reorientation program being planned by the Canadian Army and Air Force authorities for overseas personnel."

"I left Newmarket on Monday, June 25, and with some other members of the party, got as far as Halifax, expecting to leave within a day or so for England. At that time, however, we were advised that the whole plan had been reviewed by the cabinet and that, for the time being, it was being suspended. Apparently there were a number of factors in the situation. Although the need is certainly there for a project of this type for our lads overseas, there were difficulties concerned with transportation, the fluidity of the situation in England, etc., so that it was considered 'the time is not opportune.' It is still possible that, when some of the difficulties have been clarified, the plan will be re-considered."

"Needless to say, I am disappointed about the decision of the cabinet. I would have been happy to have contributed in some small measure to the job which I sincerely believe needs to be done for our lads overseas who are anxiously awaiting their return to Canada, some of whom will not be repatriated until this winter or next spring."

252 Children Enrol At Park First Day Of Summer Program

If the enrolment of the first two days is any indication, the summer recreation program at Lions park, sponsored by the Newmarket Lions club and under the direction of Fred L. Hall, will be a success. On Monday, first day of the six-weeks' program, 252 children enrolled. On Tuesday, 21 additional children turned out to participate in the activities.

The program is open to all public school children in Newmarket, five and a half years or older, and includes those pupils who graduated from public school this year and high school pupils to the age of 14.

Parents are under no obligation to send their children to the park to participate in the program and there is no cost whatever to the parents. Assisting Mr. Hall are F. C. "Fred" Evans and Misses Audrey Rowland and Glenna West.

The park is equipped with teeters, volley-ball courts, sand boxes, swings and slides are expected in the next two weeks.

Other equipment includes balls and bats, footballs, horseshoes and so on. There is a first-aid box at the park and Mr. Hall's car is kept convenient to the park in case of accident.

The boys and girls are divided into two groups, nine years and over, and under nine years. The problem facing Mr. Hall is to keep the children's interest. "I am trying all sorts of games and sports on the children," he said. "As soon as the bandstand is completed, we are going to have an amateur show with recitations, songs, dancing, solos and other entertainment. This week I have planned a treasure hunt for the smaller children. I hid 15 articles all over the park, things like old shoes, keys, etc., and I am giving a small prize for the group that finds the largest amount of them."

Mr. Hall has obtained the use of the tennis courts and there is now a pole-vaulting pit but the emphasis still will be on group games like football, baseball, touch-rugby, dodge ball and relay games.

Pine Orchard Union Church Opens Doors On Sunday

ST. JOHN'S GARDEN PARTY IS WEDNESDAY

St. John's annual garden party, Newmarket, is being held on Wednesday on the church grounds, commencing at 7 p.m. There will be music, games, refreshments, and entertainment for young and old.

As an added feature this year, five cash prizes of $10 each will be given to the holders of lucky numbers, which are being given out, if they are in attendance on the grounds. The first draw is being made at 8 p.m.

The dedication and opening services of the Pine Orchard Union church will be held Sunday in the former Hicksite Friends Meeting House which was purchased by the Pine Orchard church last October and in the intervening months was completely rebuilt. The church is situated between the fourth and fifth concessions on the Bogartown sideroad.

The former Hicksite Meeting House stood on the same property as the Conservative Friends Meeting House and before their new church building was ready, the Pine Orchard congregation had met in it. The Hicksite Meeting House had been owned jointly by a number of community associations and had been used as a community hall. Last October, the lease was returned and the Pine Orchard Union church, at the instigation of its minister, Rev. R. R. McMath, purchased it for $1.

Considerable rebuilding and repairs were needed for the building. A basement was excavated and a cement floor and walls were put in. The walls were refaced and painted and the roof reshingled. The interior of the building was painted, a new floor was laid and church furniture installed.

All this work was done by voluntary labor during the days following the purchase of the building. Leslie Harper directed the excavation of the cellar and Percy Hutchinson directed the cement work. Members of Wesley church, Vandorf, contributed time and labor towards completing the church.

When it was first approved that the building be bought and renovated, at a meeting of the congregation members at the home of Jas. Hope, over $1,000 was subscribed towards the work when the hat was passed. This same spirit of willing co-operation and assistance continued through the winter months as the building was gradually restored.

The Pine Orchard Union church is without organization of any sort. It was necessary to appoint seven trustees each year to comply with the legal conditions of the lease but outside this group, there are no other officers. The preacher has no rights except to occupy the pulpit. The seven trustees are elected each year at a meeting of the congregation.

The dedication and opening services will be in the charge of Rev. R. R. McMath with Mrs. George Wood and Mrs. James Hope as pianists. In the evening, at 8 p.m., the Wesley choir from Vandorf will join the congregation in a hymnfest. A garden party on Monday will complete the opening celebrations.

WHY NOT ADULTS TOO?

During the winter, free supervised skating for children was initiated in the municipally owned arena. Public school teachers were invited to bring their classes to the arena one day each week for a skating period. Towards the end of the season, a children's night was established. The children's program ended with a gala "Kids' Night" at the arena.

Now that winter program has been complemented in the summer with a six-week recreation program for children, sponsored by the Newmarket Lions club. Under the direction of Fred L. Hall, a schedule of activity which is intended to provide the best in healthy and interesting recreation has been arranged for summer afternoons.

Though originally planned to benefit children only, the summer program has this by-product as expressed by one mother who was present at Lions park the opening day. With school over, children are apt to become a bother with their demands on their mothers' time, she said. Now they can be sent over to the park and there will be something to keep them interested and someone to look after them. The mothers will be able to have a vacation too.

With the first steps taken towards providing a year-round recreation program for children, it is not too soon to urge a similar program for adults. At present, there are bowling and tennis clubs, and baseball. How about the formation of a drama group, handicraft clubs, debating societies, horseshoe and checkers tournaments? Labor legislation limiting working hours has given more free time to the working man than he has ever had. Provision of facilities to enjoy it would make Newmarket a finer community in which to live.

WELCOME HOME CLUBS

A soldier returning home from overseas has recourse to a variety of agencies which have been created to help him re-establish himself in the civilian life from which he has been absent sometimes for as long as five years. These agencies will help him plan the use of his service gratuities, arrange the continuance of his education, advise him of opportunities available to him, in short, be ready to minister to every need he may have.

As efficient as these agencies are, however, they fail in one function, that of making the veteran welcome home. They may try, but none of their efforts will equal the welcome the veteran receives when he arrives in his home town where old friends will stop him on the street, and he is hailed from windows and open doors.

Inevitably, the question arises: How best can the community welcome him home? Parties and banquets are the work of individuals, his family and friends, but everyone in the community is conscious of what he has done. They all want to welcome him home. Committees are formed and the question is thoroughly debated. Everyone is anxious to do something but the discussion usually bogs down on the questions of what and how.

One very able answer has been provided by the example of the Queensville Welcome Home club. Boys from the district returning home from overseas will be presented with watches at a banquet which is being planned for them. When a boy can never return, the watch will be presented to his mother.

We would imagine that the presentation of watches was an idea which has occurred to every committee which has met to discuss the subject. For various reasons, it may have been found impracticable or discarded in favor of some other offering. The handicap that all such committees labor under is that while anxious to provide what is most appropriate, they lack the means to give what they would consider equal to the tribute that is deserved by these men.

Here again, the sponsors of the Queensville Welcome Home club have overcome this disadvantage. They recognize that a watch, at the best, is only a symbol, but they have given fullest expression to that symbol by canvassing the community for funds to purchase the watches. Without any advertising or an organized campaign, they have gone to everyone in the community, explained their purpose, and in less than two weeks, over $640 has been raised. Thus everyone in the community has had a share in the purchase of the watches. Their presentation to the veterans will carry with them the sentiments of the whole community.

Welcome Home clubs have been formed in Hope and are being planned in Holland Landing, Sharon, and Mount Albert. The clubs represent a community effort which surpasses any individual effort in that they give expression to a feeling shared by each individual in the community. In this unanimity a finer tribute is paid to returning veterans.

TOWNS VS. CITIES

In a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post, a former city-dweller who moved to a small town, writes so enthusiastically of the virtues of his new environment that every townsman and villager on the continent is entitled to a pat on the back on the strength of it. Being recent converts to the faith of the small town ourselves, we second everything the author, T. E. Murphy, had to say in its favor.

Mr. Murphy was particularly impressed with finding that in a small town each inhabitant was an individual and counting for something in his community while the city-dweller tends to take on the outward coloring and habits of his fellows, and to lose his individuality. The city-dweller is a creature of conditioned reflexes which react in the same manner as those of thousands of his fellows. In the small town, each individual stands distinct from his fellows, a separate personality.

Carrying this distinction into the realm of politics and municipal government, Mr. Murphy notes that the city-dweller is on the losing end of the stick. In a small town, the mayor and councillors, and other civic servants are familiar to all, but the city's servants are almost inaccessible to the average citizen. Most inhabitants of a large city would find it difficult were they to try and list their representatives in the city-hall. Conversely, in a small town, the municipal officers know the townsfolk while in a city, the citizens are hardly distinguishable from each other to the civil servants except by their number on the tax roll. The small town profits by this familiarity just as the city loses by its lack of it.

Mr. Murphy sees the city-dweller developing an outlook which is in contrast to the outlook of those who live outside the cities. Because the city-dweller is remote from the basic things of living — the sources of his food, his clothes, the raw materials on which he labors — Mr. Murphy finds the city-dweller too dependant on what is beyond his control and seeking, as a result, a political touchstone which will guarantee his security. Those outside the city, being closer to the sources of their needs, possess an independence foreign in the city. Mr. Murphy sees a conflict between the ideas which are generated by a search for security in the city, and the ideas which are associated with a feeling of independence in the country. He is fearful of what will happen when those ideas are expressed politically since the city vote would greatly influence the national results.

Canada has not the population nor the large cities of its neighbor and we doubt if Mr. Murphy would find cause for anxiety here. However, there is no denying the distinctions he finds between town-dweller and city-dweller exist here as well as in the United States. Canadian cities are growing larger while towns are losing their populations. Before this condition reaches the point where Mr. Murphy's fear of ideological conflict between town and city-dwellers would be justified, everything should be done to help small municipalities provide facilities on a par with the cities so that they may be able to check emigration to the cities.

In Passing

The catfish season seems to have opened at Fairy Lake. Two young Isaac Waltons paraded up Main St. the other day carrying between them a catfish almost as big as themselves. In the true tradition of the other devotees of the ancient and honorable sport, they spread their arms wide to indicate the size of the "one, which got away."

A Queensville farmer reports that Toronto residents on their way to the lake even helped him dig potatoes for sale they were so anxious to have them. That potato shortage must be really serious.

An example of what can be done when everyone pitches in and helps is the renovating of the old Hicksite church building. The building was completely done over by voluntary workers and is now ready for opening as the Pine Orchard Union church on Sunday.

What Others Think

DEMPSTER'S ACTIVITIES

(From The Free Press Herald, Midland)

There now appears to be little doubt that while certain of E. B. Jolliffe's charges with respect to "Ontario's political gestapo" may have been exaggerated, the C.C.F. leader has done a real service in bringing to light the activities of the head of the anti-sabotage unit of the provincial police.

Captain W. J. Osborne Dempster is possessed of an imagination as colorful as his career. Decorated veteran of the last war, soldier and prisoner in Russia after 1918, and the mysterious opponent of Col. George Drew in this riding when the latter sought election following Mr. Finlayson's resignation, Dempster has revealed before the Royal Commission inquiry a singular capacity for serving two masters.

As a provincial constable, recently the sole head of the "special branch" in charge of investigating subversive activities, he has admitted that he worked part-time for the past ten months under an assumed name for M. A. Sanderson of Reliable Exterminators, Toronto, (popularly known as the Bug Man and a strong anti-C.C.F. propagandist). In addition, between 1940 and 1944, while he was allegedly employed full-time investigating potential saboteurs, he worked part-time in a battery shop. In each case, these activities were carried on without the knowledge of his superiors.

It has been brought out that Captain Dempster's job led him to investigate C.C.F. members of parliament and prepare briefs on their activities, while none of the Progressive Conservatives were similarly probed. He admitted that he might have told his secretary that his reports on "suspicious persons" were circulated directly to members of the Drew cabinet, although he later confessed that actually they merely went forward to the deputy police commissioner.

Charges have also been made that Dempster was a close associate of Gladstone Murray, former head of the Canadian Broadcasting Commission, and now public relations counsel for a number of large industrialists active in campaigning against the C.C.F.

It appears clear, without attempting to prejudice the evidence, that this Ontario provincial policeman associated with persons who were in a position to use information against the C.C.F. and labor movements.

C.C.F. leader Jolliffe may not be vindicated by the inquiries being made by Commissioner Mr. Justice A. M. LeBel, but he will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that the people of Ontario will be thankful to him for having taken the lid off a not too pleasant can of worms.

BOY EXHIBITS GREAT HORNED OWL

Teddy Taylor, 13 years old, Eagle St., is holding up for the camera an owl which a Newmarket companion shot with a 22 rifle in the Bogartown area. From Teddy's description of the bird it is thought to have been a Great Horned Owl. Most owls are friends of the farmer, killing mice and rats, and helping to preserve his crops, but the Great Horned Owl is in the doubtful class, with some experts defending him and others denouncing him as a killer of song birds and poultry as well as rodents.

THE COMMON ROUND By ISABEL INGLIS COLVILLE

MOMENTOUS MONTH FOR CANADA

There are months that stand out for their beauty, or their heat, for their cold or variability. But one month in the year has been one of great moment to many nations—a sort of official birthday.

Our great wide Dominion of Canada came into being on the first of July over three score and ten years ago. She has reached some measure of maturity.

She is very beautiful: in summer her flower-trimmed green robes are fair to see; in autumn her crimson and gold are gorgeous and in winter her chaste white robes, adorned with diamonds of frost crystals are magnificent. She has other jewels, too; gold and silver are hers and the black diamonds of coal. Some of her jewels are yet in the safe deposit of the earth but they are there and some day she will wear them formally.

Her sons and daughters are worthy of her—soldiers and sailors and airmen, poets, painters, authors, musicians, craftsmen of every variety—they are all becoming increasingly conscious of their Canadian heritage and are daily adding to her prestige among the nations.

Canada is awakening to her responsibilities as well as to her possibilities. She is obeying the Bible edict to feed the hungry and clothe the naked.

I do not think that many of us overly well-fed Canadians realize what real hunger is. To our shame there have been and still are some who do and if there continue to be many it is a terrible indictment of our social economy and philosophy of life.

We are becoming more educationally-wise too. As educational systems go, I suppose ours is one of the best, but we are learning—I hope—more and more that

ALL children cannot be poured into the same mould and come out as shining examples of the precision and worth of the pattern.

It has always seemed to me that the education should adapt itself to the children—not the children to the education.

All men cannot be politicians, preachers, orators, artists or workmen, so just as surely it's true that all children cannot be lovers of the higher mathematics, Greeks, Latin and ancient history.

When we fully realize this, children and youth will be given their rightful opportunities. Some schools are adapting themselves by giving real courses in agriculture, manual training, domestic science and various arts and crafts. Their pupils will rise up and call them blessed in years to come.

And I think, as I've said before, that French should be studied from third grade on. I think, equally, that English should be obligatory in French schools, but just now I am thinking that if our soldier lads had had French from their youth, many trying situations might have been avoided.

That was one of the many things world war one should have taught us—and didn't!

But Canada goes on, as Field Marshall Smuts said, Canada's progress has been a wonderful thing to see—I am quoting not literally, and we can only hope that her progress will be swift and sure along the road of Christian nationhood. It would be nice to think it could be said of Canada—a child among nations—"a little child shall lead them."

Next week I'll write of another nation to which July means much.

URGES MORE MUSIC- BE TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS

By ORVILLE GANTON

Music is a very fascinating profession. If it were not so, I am sure many of us would discontinue our activities in it because the pecuniary returns are so meagre when compared with other professions. The specialist with long experience in some professions may easily become a $50,000 a year man. A musician would more likely be in the two to four thousand dollar class.

It takes much longer to qualify in music than it does in any other profession. Without any preliminary knowledge of law or medicine one can go to college and qualify in five, seven or ten years. One could not go to a music college without any preliminary knowledge of music and qualify in the same period. Given natural talent, the proper age, and with close application one can become a fairly good performer on any instrument in five years. However, when the subject is broadened to include theoretic knowledge and music in all its phases, one could not do more than scratch the surface in five years.

I am one of those who believe music is or should be a necessary part of education. A thing which is so universal as music should have guidance in early years. Music takes care of two phases of human nature: the emotional and the necessity for discipline.

We are more or less emotional, and there is no better vehicle for the expression of our feelings than music. In music the individual must co-operate in perfect harmony with at least one other person. The constant submerging of one's natural tendencies towards individual predominance in favor of combined effort, has a very beneficial effect on the individual himself. For instance, the average member of a band, trombonist, cornetist or drummer who always keeps his just place in the general ensemble would be apt to view other activities, social and otherwise, in somewhat the same light. Martin Luther said, "Music is a discipline of order and good manners." Plato said, "Music is the essence of order, and leads to all that is good, just and beautiful."

Therefore, I believe music is a worth-while profession regardless of whatever returns may accrue from it. Money in itself is of no value. The real value in life is happiness and that cannot be purchased. If we are happy in our profession, we should consider such happiness as part payment. Lack of space will not permit me to discuss its cultural value but that should be wholly unnecessary.

KESWICK Honor Keswick Couple On 35th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Davison celebrated the 35th anniversary of their wedding on Sunday. During the afternoon more than 120 friends called at their home, Simcoe Lodge, to extend congratulations. Receiving with them were Mr. and Mrs. Clark Johnson, Port Bruce, Ont. Mrs. Johnson is a sister of Mr. Davison and she and her husband were the best man and bridesmaid of 35 years ago.

Mrs. Davison's sister, Mrs. Felton, and niece, Miss Thelma Felton, Toronto, assisted in serving the guests.

At the Indianola Beach concert in the evening the happy couple were taken completely by surprise when called to the platform to receive further felicitations and a bouquet of flowers. On behalf of the Indianola people, J. G. Durrant addressed Mr. and Mrs. Davison. One of the cottagers sang "O Promise Me." Mr. Davison responded in jocular vein and then more seriously, thanking Mr. Durrant, Wm. Stevenson, the president of the beach association, and all the cottagers.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were also called to the platform. Asked if he had any recollections of the wedding on July 8, 1910, in Toronto, Mr. Johnson replied with a Harry Lauder rendering of "She's the Lass for Me." He and Mrs. Johnson were married shortly after Mr. and Mrs. Davison.

The Indianola concert was well attended, both by cottagers and Keswick people. Preceding the concert, Rev. Gordon Lapp conducted an open air service. Mrs. Ross Shepherd was at the piano, with Mr. Shepherd leading in the hymn singing. Mrs. Thos. Cole contributed a solo and, with Mrs. Florence Marshall, also of Toronto, a duet.

Next Sunday evening's service of the United church is being transferred to the Elmhurst Beach pavilion. It will be at the usual hour of eight o'clock.

Boh Clark, Merlin Winch, Gerald Dawson and Kyle Fairbairn are the members of the Keswick Boy Scouts this year in attendance at the North York Boys' camp. Rev. Wilbur Howard, secretary of the Ontario Boys' Work Board, who spoke in Keswick a couple years ago, directed the boys' camp.

The first of the girls' camps is now in progress, with Miss Margaret Post, Toronto, as director. Miss Lois Marritt is on the staff and Mary Morton is a camper.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT TRAFFIC CASES ONLY HEARD BY MAGISTRATE

Nearly all the cases which appeared on the docket of Magistrate W. E. McIlveen's court in Newmarket Friday were traffic cases. The more serious charges were adjourned for another week.

Charges disposed of by his worship were: Samuel L. Shields, William Kap and Anderson McLaughlin, all of Toronto, who were timed and found exceeding the speed limit in North Gwillimbury by County Constable William Hill. Each was fined $10 and costs of $1; William W. Gravely, Cooksville, and Dominion Rubber Co., Toronto, timed and found exceeding the speed limit in Newmarket by Chief Constable James Leeder. The former was fined $10 and costs of $1, and the latter $7 and costs of $1.

On a charge of entering the Sutton-Virginia road in Georgina township without stopping their cars, as is requested by law, Hamilton Pickering, Zephyr, and Bruce Bowdway, Sutton West, George L. McHattie, Toronto, and I. A. Usher, Toronto, were each fined $2 and costs of $1. Constable George Foster laid the charges.

Found guilty on a charge of driving without an operator's license, Amy Wilson, Toronto, was fined $10 and costs. Constable Foster told his worship that he had stopped the car which the defendant was driving in Georgina township.

BETHEL

(July 5)

On June 20, there was a circuit picnic at Jackson's Point, held as a farewell to Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Pritchard. Dr. Pritchard was pastor of the Sutton United church.

The afternoon was spent playing ball and foot races, followed by a basket supper, which was enjoyed by all. At the close of the afternoon there was a presentation, read by Mrs. Nelson Crossberry and Dr. and Mrs. Pritchard were presented with a nest of three tables, an occasional chair and two lovely lamps. Dr. and Mrs. Pritchard made many friends during the three years spent in Sutton.

On June 28, the induction service for the new pastor, Rev. Earl Knechtel, was held in Sutton United church. A reception was held following the service and many of the people from the three appointments met to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Knechtel.

On June 20, the pupils of Elm Grove school No. 7 held their closing exercises and craft display. The pupils and teacher, Miss Myrtle Stiles, are to be complimented on the fine display of wood novelties and soap carving. The work done by the children showed the interest they took in the manual training. The program of music and singing was held by Mrs. Campbell of Beaverton, the music teacher, at the piano. Several of the children played guitars and the music was much enjoyed by all.

Miss Nancy Huntley is spending a few days with her sister, Jean, in Belleville.

The storm of Friday morning did considerable damage to Harold Winch's residence but fortunately no one was hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cryderman and Earl spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Cryderman.

Mr. Ross Tomlinson, Newmarket, is spending some days with his son, Mr. Ben Tomlinson, Baldwin.

In Memoriam

Eves—In loving memory of our dear father, William Eves, who passed away July 15, 1944.

The rolling stream of life goes on.

But still the vacant chair recalls the time, the voice, the smile.

Of him who once sat there.

Ever remembered by sons.

Eves—In loving memory of our dear father, William Eves, who passed away July 15, 1944.

His weary hours and days of pain.

His troubled nights are past; And in our aching hearts we know

He has found sweet rest at last.

Ever remembered by daughters, Beatrice and Hazel.

Graham—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Ethel May Graham, who passed away July 13, 1941.

Four years have passed since that sad day

The one we loved was called away,

God took her home, it was His will.

But in our hearts she liveth still.

Husband and boys.

Hoare—In loving memory of my dear husband, Fred Hoare, who died July 10, 1943.

My lips cannot tell how I miss him,

My heart cannot tell what to say;

God alone knows how I miss him In a home that is lonesome today.

Ever remembered by his wife.

Pickering—In loving memory of Chesley Pickering, who passed away suddenly July 15, 1942.

Though the tears in our eyes do not always glisten

And our face is not always sad, There is never a night, noon or morning

But we think of the dad we had.

Nina and Charles.

Miss Seeing Berlin, Canada Is Next Stop For Two Aurorans

Canadian troops reached Berlin on July 5 and two Aurora boys just failed to reach the German capital by hours. The Argyl-Sutherland Highlanders, one of the Canadian units picked for garrison duty, was due to leave on July 4, when word was received that certain personnel was to return to Holland for repatriation to Canada.

Included in the list were two Aurora boys, Cpl. James Cook and Pte. Leonard Chipman. The boys were disappointed at not seeing Berlin, but were pleased to be on their way on the long journey to Canada. The Argyls made their entry into the capital and it is thought C.S.M. Ken Brown of Aurora was among the Ontario highlanders.

INFORMATION ON "CONTOUR"
FARMING

Many experts feel that more attention should be paid to contour farming—the tilling of the soil and planting and cultivation of crops along lines that are level or have the same elevation on sloping land. They claim that this definitely reduces soil washing and the flooding of fertile bottom lands; conserves soil, water, seed, fertilizer, and saves tractor power.

In a programme of contour farming, your agricultural college or experimental station will provide up-to-the-minute advice which is a big help in getting the most out of your land... a valuable service that may be had for the asking.

The Bank of Toronto also offers an important service to enterprising farmers—the service of money. Now, as during the past 90 years, this Bank's experienced, friendly branch managers are ready and willing to aid responsible farmers with loans and timely financial advice.

DOWN THE CENTRE

As per usual, Capt. Tom George and the boys did a grand job on July 2 and while attendance and gate receipts were down, everyone had a grand time. Many of our readers were probably there so we're only going to touch on a few side-lights.

Revisiting the old army Alma Mater were Lieut. Dave Matheson, one of the camp's first sports officers, and FO "Frenchy" Valliere, who played some fine baseball and softball a few years ago at No. 23. Dave, back from overseas, still cuts a dashing figure and is now stationed at Simcoe camp, hospitable as ever too, as we can testify. Valliere, who left the army for the R.C.A.F., filled in in the softball game for missing Hank Avison but didn't display a great deal.

Biggest kick we got from the softball was seeing Chuck "What Amana" Shannon in action as first base coach. Shannon continually ad libbed his way and spurred his mates to victory. He's just as humorous on the sidelines too. He may try his hand at lacrosse.

Our opinion was that the good A10 team which took Provost Corps in the morning would have taken either Newmarket or Navy with ease during the day. Newmarket will meet them soon to settle first money and anything can happen, although we'll still string with the Borden team.

It was our first glimpse of the 1945 camp team and we particularly liked the work of Catcher Roy Marden. He handled McComb well and wielded a potent bat although he looks strictly a left field hitter and after his lusty homer, Navy played it that way with success. We weren't too impressed with Bep Guidolin. The ex-pro hockey player fielded well but went down swinging on three occasions.

Bob Tyson was in the game only briefly but looked as if he knew what it was all about. He should for he is the son of Al Tyson of Oshawa who not so long ago was one of the best ball players in Ontario. With Billy Taylor playing a neat game at third, Oshawa fans are demanding the appearance of the No. 23 laddies for a game, especially with Tyson and Guidolin in the line-up. It will doubtless be arranged by Lieut. Bob Kennedy and Capt. Eric Osborne.

The rest of the team except for Fred Aberley are in the old boys' class and we liked that infield of Tommy Jamieson, Bernie Gantner, "Long John" Callanan and Taylor. The first three are as good as ever. Aberley, a Toronto boy, is a pitcher yet to see action but said to be pretty fair.

Navy presented an all silent service team and are not to be confused with the York Depot team in the Beaches league although quite a few of the lads do play at Kew Beach.

It looked like a resumption of the hockey season with Bob Schnurr at short, Bunky Luska-sik 2b., Eddie King c., Ken Grivel, r.f. Of this quartet only King specializes in softball, the rest preferring hardball. Schnurr will probably see action with the Toronto Leafs after the war. King, an inflicker, was obviously cut of position behind the plate and could not hold the shots of Markham's Russ Burrows who twirled a fair game but was handicapped. Hugh Cuddie, c.f., is the Balmy Beach footballer and York Depot's leading hitter, the veteran, Hilby Lang, a long string-bean by the name of Bob Reid and Annis Stukus completed the team. Reid and Cuddie carried the sailors' artillery but big Stuke, who was at first, may be a swell football player but doesn't rate too highly, as he freely admits, at mushball.

The game provided the fans with in-and-out, dumb, brainy, superlative, Merriwell finish ball and at one stage looked as if it would go on indefinitely as the boys played Alphonse and Gaston.

Sgt. Scotty Rankine copped the 10-mile road race in the remarkable time of 57.29. Rankine is now close to 40 and looks as good, if not better, than in pre-war days. In second place was Whitey Sheridan of the Hamilton Olympic club, another experienced performer, and Newmarket's Allstair Cameron came in third. We take nothing from the efforts of the first two when we remind you that on the Friday previous, the little New Brunswick soldier had captured the 5 1/2 mile M.D. 2 cross-country championship and wasn't rested sufficiently to do his best. Give Cameron a few more years and he'll take them all.

The master of ceremonies at the gala concert was none other than Jack Hennessey of Ritzlin's Blitz fame and an old favorite at Aurora. Jack used to bring over softball teams from Lake Wilcox in the early war days to play the Aurora York-Simcoe entry and on more than one occasion he lent his services for Aurora charity drives.

R.S.M. Syd Bowman was host at the sergeants' mess and during the tea hour we managed to grab a chinwag with "The Flicker". As per usual the conversation drifted around to the good old English game of soccer and it was with obvious pride that Coach Bowman announced his boys from No. 23 were now league leaders in the T. and D. B series and likely to stay there.

"Best team in the history of the camp" sez Syd and after looking over the roster we must agree.

Norm Briley, formerly of Ulster United and District Depot is between the posts and he has few superiors in Canada, being a frequent choice for all-star teams. The backfield has been re-arranged with the George Brothers (L.-Cpl. Al and Dvr. "G") performing at fullback. Engehutt of Frood Mines, Cpl. "Tiger" Lee and Cpl. Al Reid form the half line and work in unison to good effect. Bob Urquhart, another former Toronto big leaguer, has been moved to the front line pivot spot and his experience makes him a natural playmaker. Sgt. Dave Garrett (Dents) and Pte. J. R. Simpson play the inside wings and at outside are Pte. E. N. Henry and Lieut. Bert Life. One of the big differences this year is that those side balls are seldom lost but centred deftly by Henry and Life.

While on the subject of soccer, Claremont, once one of Ontario's leading roundball centres, has organized a team this year and is just good enough to tie Rooney A.C. of Toronto, one of the better T. and D. teams. The Pickering township lads have some names familiar in bush league hockey and softball, the Evans brothers, the Bradley brothers, DeRusha, Redshaw, Todd, Tran, Dophing and McGashlin. They will be ready for postwar competition against district clubs.

Earl Cook, having decided to retire from pro ball (he and the Leafs couldn't see eye to eye on value and salary), besides spending his spare time lending a hand to coach Stouffville youngsters on the fine points of baseball, has signed with Mahers in the Victory league. He made his first start last week and lost to Hamilton Thurstons 6-5, being greeted with some resounding clouting. By one of those quirks, the winning pitcher was Beryl Israelson who has been released by Cook's club to make room for Earl. The circuit is one of the "shamateur" or semi-pro type and Sponsor Jim Maher is not noted for being tight-fisted, so Cookie will pick up a bit of happy cabbage as well as keeping fit.

Herman Easterhouse from Ansnorveld, who played on defence the past winter for Newmarket Juniors and was drafted as a wartime replacement by Charlie Rowntree, narrowly missed having his hockey career ended in a motor accident last week. He did sustain a dislocated hip but the curly-headed lad figures he will be all ready for next season.

We regret to announce the death of Jack Prentice of Brown's Corners, Markham township. Go back to 1929 and recall a husky 17-year-old youngster who looked much older, starring with Markham Green-shirts. He could play either defence or forward, could skate like a fiend and to the eyes of many looked like a natural for pro hockey. Aurora sportsmen were beating their brains out in those days trying to compete with the Newmarket Redmen and early the next fall, in company with either "Doc" Boulding or Herman Gilroy or both, we went to Markham to secure Jack for Aurora. We recall him agreeing and getting Frank Latta, the club secretary, to reluctantly sign a release. Prentice came to Aurora, worked hard but didn't appear happy and just as the season opened and he was looking good, asked to be allowed to go home or else he'd go anyway. It was with regret and some misgivings that course was agreed on and so Prentice was lost to Aurora. He played hockey after that but the spark was gone. At 33 he leaves to mourn him besides a host of friends, a wife and eight children.

Sunderland citizens have agreed upon a new arena as a war memorial in conjunction with Brock township officials and the local branch of the Canadian Legion. The municipalities will guarantee the money needed if it has to be borrowed but both will make grants. The provincial government is expected to donate $2,000 and the Legion has set out to raise $2,000 by way of street dances this summer (and they'll do it too, so help me) and other organizations will

There's a Ford in your Future!

There's AN IMPROVED V-8 ENGINE FOR YOUR NEXT FORD

ONE OF THESE DAYS you'll stow your fishing tackle and those old—but oh so comfortable—clothes in a shiny new Ford. Then you'll let your new V-8 engine have her head, and away you'll go to that cabin in the wilds.

Yes, here's why you know the Ford V-8 engine is the engine you'll want in your post-war car:

380,000 military vehicles have come from the Ford plant at Windsor since the war began. As thousand after thousand of these vehicles pressed over the war's worst terrain, suggestions came back for ways to improve still further the performance of the Ford V-8 engine.

For five years this battle-testing has continued. For five years improvement has been added to improvement. In the new Ford car five years' improvements and refinements will come to you all at once.

In the meantime, maintain your old car in good working order. And when the time comes, keep your eye open for the greatest Ford yet.

put their shoulder to the wheel too. Sunderland and district have been badly in need of a covered ice surface for the past decade and the new building will be located in the park. We congratulate the folks in North Ontario for their prompt action in deciding upon what kind of a community memorial they want and then setting out to obtain the funds.

Girls' softball has sprung to life down around Markham where a league used to function prior to the war. Already in action are Milliken, Unionville, Cedar Grove and Markham. Milliken and Unionville in particular used to turn out some dandy teams. Looks as if it might be possible to really stage a whopping big playdown series this year if somebody can get the thing organized.

Orillia in the north, the Beeton-Alliston circuit, the Newmarket town league and now the Markham-Scarboro league. Inter-league play-offs are a fine thing for team spirit and gates and something along the line suggested might be easily arranged with possibly Orillia being out because of the travelling involved. Sorry to hear the coffee pot is not being well received at Newmarket but 'twas ever thus. Sad part is that under present wages and employment there is no practical need for the fans to be cheap as was once the case.

Roy Collings, former Aurora junior hockey favorite, last year with Zephyr, has moved his wife to Longford where he is in charge of the C.N.R. station.

Golf fans and sports fans in general have received a nice break locally with the announcement that the Canadian open will be held on August 2, 3, 4 at the Thornhill Golf club. That means that almost at your doorstep, within easy bus or motor distance you will have a chance to see the leading nubbick and maschie artists in action. It doesn't matter if you play golf or not, there is something magnetic about a large golf gallery, the scurry for a vantage point and those next-to-impossible putts and chips which fellows like Byron Nelson, Jug McSpaden, Horton Smith do so well.

There's the legends surrounding such fellows as Leo Diegel, Walter Hagen, Joe Kirkwood, Tommy Armour and the older players which can only be believed by seeing. Personally we are going to be on holiday that week and intend to see most of it. See you on the first tee.

O.H.A. intermediate title, has been discharged from the Canadian navy after serving nearly two years. He is in the employ of his well-known sportsman father.

Maple Leafs (the hockey variety) have announced they will again train in Owen Sound and Connie Smythe is evidently backing heavily on discharges from the armed forces for it has been announced that the accent on youth has been discontinued and only kids of proven junior A ability will go in to training.

Les Canadiens have called for waivers on the once-scoring ace, Gordon Drillon, and the gorgeous Gordy will have to go to the minors or play amateur as he did last winter. The same situation will apply to a large percentage of players who were stars five years ago.

The folks down Langstaff way are getting very sports conscious. Besides providing several players for Charlie Ryan's Roselawns and the Hill juvenile and bantam ball clubs, they have organized a boys' juvenile softball club and intend to enter other sports too. Messrs. Morris and Maddeaux and Mrs. J. Little have been named as the organizing committee and Ken Miller as coach of the teams. Ken has a $5 prize ready for the first lad who whacks out a four-ply clout. The team is equipped with sweaters and caps.

Herbie Holman, who in his day could run with the best of them, showed his heels to the 40-year crowd at the Ordnance picnic at Musselman's Lake last week and won himself a nifty smoking stand. The ladies from the depot, many of whom play on the Newmarket camp team, handed a 17-4 beating to the men's team (regular players barred) and there is quite a bit of kidding going on around the plant these days. Sorry we missed the picnic for everyone reports "tops" in all departments.

Camp Borden Ordnance took a decision over the local soldier softballers last week. Last year the Borden boys won the camp championship but this season, in army competition at least, they have only been able to score one win, a fair indication of the brand of ball played this year in Borden. At Beeton on July 1 they won over Barrie Harmony Grill 4-3.

The Aurora boys were not badly outplayed and might have won but for some weird umpiring. For the benefit of those who may still be confused, a ball is foul or fair under the following circumstances: In the infield it is where the ball rolls (either is played to the bag or comes to a stop). In the outfield, it is where the ball first lights, not where it subsequently rolls. A simple rule but one that has apparently been forgotten by some.

Bob Bell, according to all we hear, deserves a hand for his umpiring, gratis, in the North York Lions kid baseball circuit. Those in the know say he is doing a real job. Herbie Rose, Richmond Hill junior hockeyist, is also doing a great job for a teen-ager at second-guessing.

C. B. Raynham of Weston holds a record we think is unique. An agent for a patent medicine company, he uses a bicycle to vend his wares and a few weeks ago he completed his 200,000 mile by bike. This has been set up since 1929. He rides 365 days a year and has averaged 33 miles a day. He has ridden as far as 171 miles in one day and 712 miles in a week and made trips to Quebec, Sarnia, Ottawa, North Bay, Sault Ste. Marie, the Adirondack mountains and even as far south as Georgia. His bike has a six-speed gear and can climb any hill in low, while in high gear he can exceed the speed limit. Previous to coming to Canada he covered many miles in Europe and England but never kept a record.

Local racing fans will remember Gus Berghen of Hamilton who last raced in North York in 1940. Gus, who has but one arm, is 58 and according to available figures has ridden 174,000 miles so far. The record books show that in 1939 an Englishman, Tommy Goodwin, rode 100,000 miles in 500 days. Don't know what Bob Benville and the boys are going to think about all this but it'll give them something to shoot at.
